Letter No. RF. 250-47 from the Officer on Special Duty (Mysore Residency) forwarding seven files connected with the Dargah in the Residency Compound.

The Residency letter of 1935 referred to overleaf (Collector's letter and paragraph 2) has been marked by a flag.

As will be seen from it, the Collector is required to make an annual report stating that the site has been inspected and compared with the plan and that there has been no encroachment beyond the limits fixed and demarcated in 1933. And the letter now received from the Collector is the report, in accordance with these instructions, for the year 1947.

If approved the papers and the files received from the Residency may be recorded after perusal, and the Residency Office may be informed that the files are being retained permanently in the Secretariat.
